

The Delights of Devon

Dr. David Starkey

Saltram House

Jonathan Foyle

Join in on this family history roadshow

This event is dedicated to exploring the history of Devon and the Southwest and that includes the history of its people.

On Sunday Nick Barratt (Who Do You Think You Are BBC2), Jonathan Foyle (History Mysteries BBC2) and Eric Knowles (Going for a Song, The Antiques Inspectors) will be on hand to discuss your family, homes and antiques. Adrian Tinniswood will present the county's arts and crafts architecture and Caroline Holmes offers an optional excursion to Cornwall's great gardens: The Eden Project and The Lost Gardens of Heligan.

Friday evening

Dr. David Starkey will give a lecture on monarchy (as seen in his recent Channel 4 series).

Saturday morning

Lecture by Michael Turner – 'In Drake's Wake'.

Since 1980 Michael Turner has travelled the world in Sir Francis Drake's footsteps, this will be a fascinating talk on Drake's life. After, visit Buckland Abbey which was Sir Francis Drake's home in the 16th century.

Alternative visit Go with Jonathan Foyle to Totnes and Dartington Hall which was originally built in 1388.

Saturday evening

An evening with Jonathan Foyle and Nick Barratt 'Making Television History'.

Sunday Roadshow morning

A wonderful opportunity to talk to the experts Jonathan Foyle (House Detective), Eric Knowles (ceramics), Nick Barratt (family history, archivist). Bring along your home and family history project and a portable antique!

Sunday afternoon

Adrian Tinniswood will take you to visit Coleton Fishacre which was built in the 1920's for the D'Oyly Carte family, in the Arts and Crafts style, set amid gardens in a spectacular coastal setting.

Alternative visit to Saltram with Jonathan Foyle to see this magnificent Georgian house with Adam interiors.

Monday morning

Lecture by Adrian Tinniswood.

Exeter and East Devon

Join Jonathan Foyle for a guided tour of Exeter Cathedral and Guildhall, or tour of Edwin Lutyens' Castle Drogo with Adrian Tinniswood.
